

Daniela Morar

CONTACT INFORMATION	Department of Economics Yale University 27 Hillhouse Ave, #14 New Haven, CT, 06511	☎ 503-896-4583 ✉ daniela.morar@yale.edu https://www.danielamorar.com
EMPLOYMENT	Post-Doctoral Associate Department of Economics, Yale University , 2018- present
EDUCATION	University of Michigan , Ann Arbor, MI Ph.D., Economics, 2018 M.A., Economics, 2013 Reed College , Portland, OR B.S., Mathematics-Economics, 2009
RESEARCH FIELDS	Education, Labor, Development
WORKING PAPERS	“Foreign instructors and student STEM outcomes” “Undergraduate research experience and persistence in STEM” with Jason Owen-Smith and Margaret Levenstein
WORK IN PROGRESS	“Gender and persistence in STEM” with Jason Owen-Smith and Margaret Levenstein “Narrowing the income and gender academic gaps by means of technology: Intervention in public schools in Colombia” with Luz Karime Abadia and Gloria Bernal “Education, COVID-19 and pro-social behavior: The effect of remote tutoring” with Luz Karime Abadia and Gloria Bernal
PUBLICATIONS	“Dominos and Sandpiles.” Electronic Journal of Combinatorics . Volume 22(1), 2015
RESEARCH EXPERIENCE	Research Assistant To Jason Owen-Smith and Margaret Levenstein, The Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan 2014–present To Steve Lonn and Christopher Brooks, Learning, Education and Design Lab, School of Information, University of Michigan 2014 To Kevin Stange and Daniel Kreisman, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan 2013–2014 To Jeffrey Parker, Economics Department, Reed College 2008–2009 To David Perkinson, Mathematics Department, Reed College 2007 Summer Research Apprenticeship 2010 With Scott Page, University of Michigan Research Analyst 2009–2010 ECONorthwest, Education Division, Portland, OR Research Assistant 2009 Northwest Economic Research, Portland, OR

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Course Director Introductory Microeconomics, Yale University 2018-present
Guest lecture Introductory Microeconomics, Yale University 2019
Instructor Introduction to Data Analysis and Econometrics, Yale University 2019
Graduate Student Instructor Sports Economics, Economics Department, University of Michigan 2017
Introduction to Economics, Economics Department, University of Michigan 2011–2013
Development Economics, Economics Department, University of Michigan 2014
Teaching Assistant 2008
Introduction to Algebraic Geometry, Reed College/Park City Math Institute
Mathematics Tutor and Grader 2006–2009
Mathematics Department, Reed College

SKILLS

Computer Programming

Proficient in STATA, Microsoft Suite (Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Access), Mathematica, LaTeX
Working knowledge of R, Python

Languages

English: fluent (written and verbal)
Romanian: native language
Spanish: limited working proficiency
German: basic knowledge

CONFERENCES
AND SEMINARS

2020: Washington Area Labor Economics Symposium, Association for Education Finance and Policy (AEFP), Society of Labor Economists Annual Meeting, Labor/Public Economics Workshop (Yale University), Labor Breakfast (Yale University) x2
2019: Association for Education Finance and Policy(AEFP), Labor/Public Economics Workshop (Yale University), Labor Breakfast (Yale University)
2017: Causal Inference in Education Research Seminar (University of Michigan) x2, ISR-Zwerdling Seminar in Labor Economics (University of Michigan)
2016: Causal Inference in Education Research Seminar (University of Michigan), ISR-Zwerdling Seminar in Labor Economics (University of Michigan), Summer Seminar (University of Michigan)
2015: Causal Inference in Education Research Seminar (University of Michigan)

HONORS AND AWARDS

University of Michigan, Department of Economics, Summer Research Fellowship (2011)
University of Michigan, Regents Scholarship (2010)
Reed College, Phi Beta Kappa (2009)
Reed College, commendations for excellence (2006-2009)
Reed College, Undergraduate Initiative Research Grant, 2007

SERVICE

Referee for Economic Development and Cultural Change, American Educational Research Association (AERA)
President of Romanian Student Association at University of Michigan (2013-2018)